Motorbike star has Gault the whole lot!

CARLUKE motorbike star Alex Gault cleaned up at the Kirkcaldy and District Motor Club awards recently.

In front of around 300 guests, including Scottish Road Racing, TT and British Superbike legend Jim Moodie, Gault scooped no fewer than seven top honours.

The youngster knew he was there to pick up the Niall Mackenzie Tribute Cup.

But he was in for a surprise when he was also handed another few gongs during the course of the evening.

Alex's impressive list of awards were:

- The Niall Mackenzie Tribute Cup;
- The Lord Hutchison of Montrose Challenge Trophy for KDMC Super Sport Champion;
- The Fidelity Challenge Trophy for Best Super Sport rider at Scottish Road Races;

● The Carol Miller Memorial Trophy for being combined winner of the Scottish Super Sport Championship;

● The James Thompson Trophy for fastest Super Sport Lap by a KDMC member;

● The Grahame Fotheringham Memorial Salver for best Performance by an under-21 over the 2007 season and;

● The ARAI Helmets "Young Rider of the Year".
