

Alex settles for sixth

ALEX Gault had to settle for sixth place in the latest round of the British Superbike Championship at the Croft Circuit.

The 17-year-old on his Astro Kawasaki qualified eleventh fastest and jumped two places after the first lap.

However, despite a spirited showing he couldn't catch the leading group with the race being won by Robbie Brown, who finished eight seconds clear of the chasing pack.

Gault managed a personal best lap on the circuit of 1.26.380 and the result does push him up into the top ten in the championship for the first time this season.

He is now ninth overall and fourth in the under 19 championship.

Personal best...But lap wasn't enough for 17-year-old Gault
